HOME NEWS HEARD HERE AND THERE

For Rent—Let pasture. See M. H. Salton.

Mrs. Gilchrist and children went to Ogden on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Bruce and daughter Viola, are visiting in Roswell.

Mrs. J. H. Ball and little son returned yesterday from Deweyville, Idaho.

Mrs. Jane Hoffman went to Salt Lake the forepart of the week to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. D. Williams.

A brother of James Judd of Union was badly burned by hot grease about the face and hands last week, being needly.

Mrs. Samuel Faddis went to Salt Lake Tuesday morning, to attend the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Faddis.

Word has been received that a fine baby boy has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wimber Evans at Salt Lake last Friday.

Miss Laverne Allen, who was operated on at the Dee Hospital in Ogden, a couple of weeks ago is reported getting along nicely.

The city has received a shipment Sangamon mowers and some of them are being installed. We understand the city will install a mower for $10 payable monthly if preferred.

Dr. Emmett informs us that Mrs. Frank Hixson of Wanlip met with a painful accident last night by falling off a small dry goods box breaking her wrist. The doctor set the bone and made her as comfortable as possible.

A fire supposed to have been caused by an overhauled coal stove, destroyed the home occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. White at Grass Creek, last Monday. Practically everything was consumed in the flames, only a few of the smaller household articles were saved.

Word has been received that Mrs. E. D. Williams, of Salt Lake, died the forepart of the week. Mrs. Ball was held Saturday and was buried Sunday morning. Mrs. Williams was well known in this county and her many friends will be痛惜 her passing.

Mr. J. W. Thorsen, of Morgan, made several trips thru this country in the interest of the Hills (legion project of Millard county). He states that the crops there are good except he very small fall wheat is a bit high and spring crops are looking very well. Fifteen thousand acres of land is being cultivated this year. Mr. Thorsen will make this section of country frequently during the year and will be pleased to talk to anyone interested in farm lands. He will take an excursion thru Summit County about about the first of June.

Mr. Gibson and Miss Hilda Fornley of Grass Creek, were married in Salt Lake last Saturday and returned home the forepart of the week. Mr. Anderson met them in Echo and drove them home in his car, at least part of the way, for when they got near Wm. Shaw's place the horses tried to run over the driver, spilling the occupants and breaking them up somewhat. No one was seriously injured.

Wednesday night a wedding dance was given at the opera house. The groom and bride have many friends who wish them long life and happiness.

Aousing farewell party was given at the opera house Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Croft and family, who have moved to Farmington, Davis County. Besides dancing and refreshments, the following program was carried out:

Address of Appreciation—Wm. Z. Terry.

Quartet—Harmony Glee Club.

Reading—Olive Branch.
